Describes Program To Relieve Losses Over Great Plains

Ike Tells Congress That Some Legislation Is Needed to Permit Phases of Plan to Take Effect

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower reported to Congress today on a program designed to relieve "widespread suffering and heavy economic losses" by farmers in the Great Plains region. The President advised the lawmakers that "certain legislation is needed" to carry out phases of the program.

Three Doctors Report Ike Physically Fit

Back Up President's Own Word That He Is Feeling 'Fine'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three physicians examined President Eisenhower today and reported that "his physical condition is excellent."

The new medical report on the convalescing President's health recalled his own statement Sunday that his health will be a very important factor in determining whether to seek re-election. Today's White House examination, which came without advance public notice, was conducted by Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder, the White House physician; Col. Thomas W. Mattingly, heart specialist at Walter Reed Army Hospital here; and Col. Byron E. Pollack, chief heart specialist at Fitzsimons Army Hospital in Denver.

Their report backed up word from the President himself that he is feeling "fine." He has been writing that to members of Congress who inquired about his health, and some of them interpreted his words as indicating a zest for further service in the White House.

Eisenhower was reported to be especially pleased with comments that he looks as well as he says he feels — a point that is not lost on television-minded politicians.

Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall said yesterday he is sticking to his thesis that Eisenhower will seek a second term "if he thinks he is able." In the light of this statement, the President's own expression and those of the men around him appear to have added significance.

Chairman Bridges (NH) of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, reported after a White House meeting of legislative leaders that Eisenhower looks "just fine."

Vice President Nixon said the President "looked splendid" after his Florida vacation trip. All of this seemed more than just a straw in the wind which blew hard around the second term speculation after several conferences of administration leaders yesterday.

First, Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey drove to the Justice Department for lunch with Atty. Gen. Brownell, one of the administration's top political strategists.

Brownell then went to the White House for an hour's talk with chief presidential assistant Sherman Adams. Hall walked in a side entrance and said later he just "bumped into" presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty.

Hagerty is one of those with whom Eisenhower has said he has discussed some aspects of his forthcoming decision on whether he will run again.

In identical letters to Vice President Nixon and House Speaker Rayburn, Eisenhower said:

"The Great Plains region, a vast agricultural empire peopled by 17,000,000 of our citizens, is an area of severe climatic variations which periodically produce widespread suffering and heavy economic losses. In this region farm families have a continuous struggle to protect their best cultivated and grazing lands against soil erosion during seasons of high winds and frequent periods of extremely dry weather."

The Great Plains program was one of nine points in the special farm message which Eisenhower sent to Congress Monday. In that message, and in his State of the Union message last Thursday, he dealt with the matter in general terms.

The area known as the Great Plains includes parts of ten states east of the Rocky Mountains — Montana, Wyoming, North and South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Texas.

In his letter to Nixon and Rayburn, Eisenhower said that because the problems of the plains area directly concerned the lives and prosperity of millions of Americans, "the nation as a whole is directly concerned."

The President sent Congress a letter sent to him by Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

Administration actions which Benson said will be taken include strengthening of federal crop insurance; still more research; intensification of education programs; distribution of land use films; and improvement of an acreage allotment and price support program.

In the legislative field, Benson informed the President that additional authority is needed to "authorize the formulation and announcement of conservation programs covering an extensive period."

Man Bribed To Plant Bomb On Indian Plane

LONDON (AP)—The Colonial Office announced today it had evidence Chinese Nationalists bribed a cleaner at the Hong Kong airport to time-bomb the Indian plane which crashed last year with a party of Chinese Communists bound for the Bandung conference.

A Colonial Office statement said the cleaner, Chow Tse Ming, stowed away to Formosa five weeks after the crash. It explained that Nationalist officials had refused repeatedly to extradite him for trial on a charge of conspiracy to murder.

"Despite intensive and continuing investigation it has not yet proved possible to bring charges against any other persons who participated in the crime," the statement said.

The Air India plane collected the Red party at Hong Kong April 11. It crashed in the South China Sea after an explosion while approaching Indonesia. Fifteen persons, including Chinese Red officials and Communist newsmen, were killed.

Eighteen Families In State Win Awards In Balanced Farming

COLUMBIA (AP)—Eighteen Missouri farm families today were named district winners in the balanced farming contest sponsored by the University of Missouri.

The eight couples from Eastern Missouri will receive their awards here Jan. 16, while the 10 couples from the western part of the state will receive theirs Feb. 22 at Kansas City.

The winners: Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hall, Hurdland; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards, Cairo; Mr. and Mrs. Clem Kallash, Troy; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lansford, Linn; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mullen, Steelville; Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Geier, Altenburg; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Holden, Birch Tree; Mr. and Mrs. Noah Heath, East Prairie;

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence D. Maxey, St. Joseph; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Saunders, Osborn; Roy Brown and Gene Brown, Newtown; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bacon, Cameron; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Held, Harrisonville; Mr. and Mrs. George Eichelberger, Pilot Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Robertson, Lamar; Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Graham, Eldon; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Nimmo, Elkland; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Aankin, Mountain Grove.

Farmers Organization Has 71,816 Members

CORNING, Iowa (AP)—The National Farmers Organization now has a certified list of 71,816 members, President Oren Staley of Rea, Mo., has announced.

Staley said in a statement last night before he and a group of NFO officials left for Washington to confer with government officials on the farm situation:

"We are getting call from all over the country to help counties organize NFO chapters and we're going to push this membership drive to the hilt."

When the NFO held its first national convention three weeks ago it listed the membership at about 55,000.

NFO Leaders Have Arrived In Capital

Will Visit Several Senate Committees, Midwest Legislators

WASHINGTON (AP)—A delegation from the newly organized National Farmers Organization came here today to seek "emergency aid" for agriculture.

Oren Staley of Rea, Mo., NFO president, said the group planned to call on a number of Midwestern congressmen today and to present recommendations at a meeting of the Senate Agriculture Committee tomorrow. No plans were made to call on Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

"There is need for emergency aid to increase farmers' income," Staley told a reporter.

The organization was formed in southwestern Iowa in September to protest against sharply declining hog prices and to seek government action to bolster livestock markets.

It called for government price supports at $20 a hundred pounds for hogs and $30 for cattle. Since then hog prices have dropped to about $10 and cattle to $13.50.

There are no government price supports for livestock, but the Agriculture Department has been buying a limited number of pork products to stem market setbacks.

Staley declined to say what his group is recommending, explaining its proposals will be laid before the Senate committee which starts work tomorrow on formulating new agriculture legislation. Staley said NFO plans to send a larger delegation here in February to press for its demands. He said the growth of his organization since September had been "astounding" and that it was an expression of "grass roots opinion." Its membership is centered largely in Iowa, Missouri and Nebraska.

Those accompanying Staley were Harry Gruman of Prescott, Iowa, NFO vice president, and E. Glen of Louisiana, Mo., and John Warren of Maloy, Iowa, both of whom are NFO directors.

Sen. Ellender (D-La) said the NFO leaders will testify before the Senate Agriculture Committee on new farm legislation. Ellender is committee chairman.

Rep. Cannon (D-Mo), who asked that the NFO be heard along with other farm groups, said the organization favors a nonpartisan, bipartisan approach to farm problems.

Government Controls Placed On Quebec's Newsprint Industry

QUEBEC (AP)—In a move believed without precedent, Premier Maurice Duplessis announced last night his government will slap far-reaching provincial government controls on Quebec's 55-million newsprint industry.

And in a separate move, Duplessis outlined a bill in the legislative Assembly calling for a $100,000 annual tax increase on one large newsprint firm, the increase being retroactive for one year. The bill represents a doubling of the firm's evaluation.

GRACE KELLY GETS BIG GREETING—Across Grace Kelly, wearing black hat, was mobbed by newsmen, Hollywood columnists and photographers as she arrived in Pasadena, Calif., to finish a picture commitment before marrying Prince Rainier III of Monaco in the spring. Studio press agents who tried to whisk the actress away, finally gave in to the mass interviews. (NEA Telephone)

School Bonds Are Endorsed By Foundation

Lack Enough Federal Students To Qualify for Aid

The Sedalia board of education held its regular meeting Tuesday night at 7:30 in the superintendent's office at Smith-Cotton High School.

A letter from the representative of the federal office of education stating that Sedalia schools do not qualify for federal building aid was presented to the board by Dr. Heber U. Hunt.

The application for building aid, if approved, would have given Sedalia $100,000 in addition to the current federal student aid that is being received.

It was pointed out that the application was on file and if there was sufficient increase in the number of federally-connected students before June 30 Sedalia would be given consideration for additional aid. Hunt said, however, such an increase was unlikely.

A bid for poll supplies for the school election on Feb. 7 was submitted to the board by the Hurlbut Printing Co. for $108.50 and was accepted. The Acme Printing Co. and the Times Printing Co. were invited to bid but did not.

An endorsement of the school bond issue was received from the trustees of the Jennie Jaynes Lewis Foundation.

The endorsement read in part, "Mrs. Lewis left her entire estate to Sedalia and these funds were used in making our fine, modern stadium available to the public, in hopes that such facilities would inspire the creation of equal facilities in other areas of recreation."

"The present school bond issue will in a way express the appreciation of the citizens of Sedalia for her interest in us all."

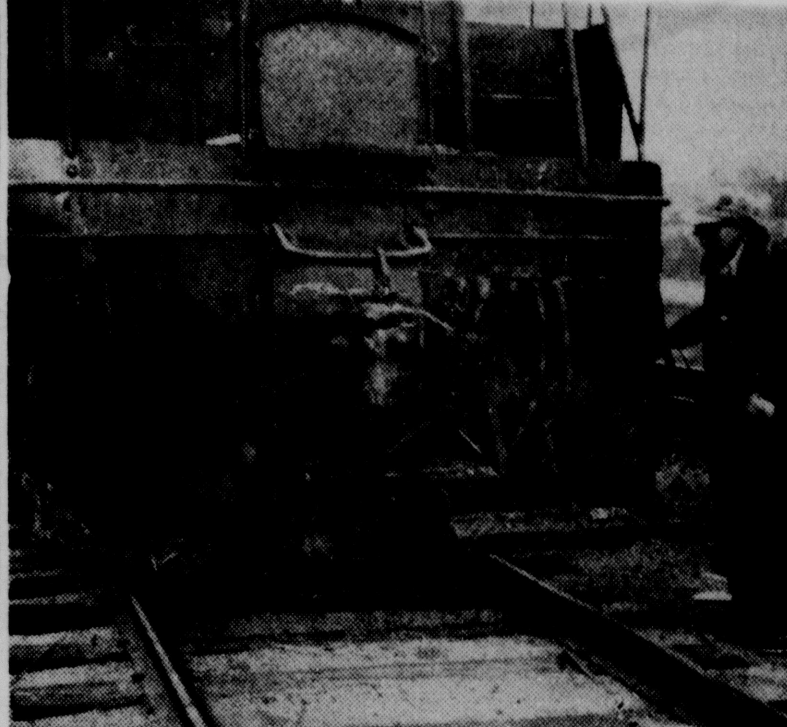

"We sincerely hope that the people of Sedalia will approve this bond issue and make these sorely needed facilities available now to our citizens of tomorrow."

The endorsement was signed by E. M. Stafford, Jr., president, Charles M. Van Dyne, vice-president, and Thomas W. Cloney II, secretary-treasurer, trustees of the Jennie Jaynes Lewis Foundation.

Other business brought before the board were payments of routine expenses.

Last Hearing Tonight On New Plumbing Law

The final public hearing on the proposed new plumbing ordinance will be held at 8 p.m. today in the council chamber at City Hall. It will be conducted by Councilman Aubrey Case, chairman of the printing and ordinances committee.

Women Are Commended—

Chamber of Commerce Board Meets at Whiteman Air Base

Members of the Chamber of Commerce board, their husbands, wives and guests, had what proved to be a social time at Whiteman Air Force Base Tuesday evening with only a short business meeting presided over by Floyd Priddy, president. Priddy expressed the appreciation of the group to Col. A. J. Beck, bomb wing commander, and Col. Charles V. Neil, base commander, for the invitation to have a meeting at the base. He also thanked Capt. John Herbst, public information officer, for the interesting tour of the base which preceded the dinner.

Col. Beck welcomed the group, told them to stay as long as they wanted and invited them to meet at any time at the base. Col. Neil, also, spoke briefly and stated he was glad the wives had come. This, he said, is the first group to come to the base in which the wives have been included. Col. Neil's wife, too, attended the dinner.

Floyd Priddy then explained that there were several women on the board, a fact of which he is very proud. Many Chambers of Commerce, he pointed out, will not have women on the board and he felt organizations that don't are missing a great deal because women make excellent board members.

Other military officers at the base were introduced by Col. Beck. They were Col. William Lewis, 340th Wing director of operations; Lt. Col. Edward Wooten, wing director of material; Lt. Col. Harold Lentz, commanding officer of the 340th Base Supply Squadron; Maj. Claude Carpenter, base transportation officer; and Capt. Herbst.

K. U. Love, past president, told the officers that the meeting Tuesday night was another of the good neighbor activities that he was proud existed between Whiteman Air Force Base and the citizens of Sedalia.

Others from Sedalia introduced by Priddy were Vernon Rodick, first vice-president; Jack Faber, executive manager, and Mrs. Faber; Mrs. Ike L. Warren, treasurer, and Mr. Warren; Mrs. Everett White, director, and Mr. White; Mrs. Marjorie Garanson, director; Maurice Griffin, director, and Mrs. Griffin; William Gibson, director, and Mrs. Gibson; Virgil Corson, director, and Mrs. Corson; James Van Wagner Jr., director, and Mrs. Van Wagner; Clinton Muller, director, and Mrs. Muller; Harry Naugel, director; Mike O'Connor, director; Mrs. K. U. Love, Mrs. Floyd Priddy, Mrs. Kathryn Ros-

Deadly Radioactive Cylinder Is Found In Workman's Car

MILFORD, Conn. (AP)—The jumping needle of a Geiger counter at a construction job gate turned up a small cylinder of deadly, radioactive cobalt today in the possession of a bewildered workman.

Benjamin Zowacki, a 33-year-old electrician, told a reporter he took the cylinder late yesterday afternoon because he wanted the string from which it was hanging.

The device, used in photographing steel pipe, was in a paper bag lying inside of a cloth cap in the glove compartment of Zowacki's car.

Searchers with a Geiger counter had been checking all cars entering and leaving the site of a job where the United Engineers Construction Co. is building a power plant addition for the Connecticut Light & Power Co.

When Zowacki's automobile came through the gate, the search ended. Zowacki said he was wholly unaware that radio and television stations in this area had been broadcasting periodic warnings all night, advising whoever had the cylinder to dispose of it in a vacant lot, notify police and report immediately to a hospital.

Zowacki said he left the cylinder in his car all night, parked on a street much used by pedestrians. (See earlier story on Page 10)

Senator Hennings Seeks Second Term

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Thomas Hennings (D-Mo.) announced plans yesterday to seek a second term in office. He is 53. Hennings was elected to the Senate in 1950.

Otterville Couple Is Killed As Truck Is Struck By Train

Wilfred Wilkinson and His Wife Are Victims Wednesday Morning Before Eastbound MoPac Freight

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Nathaniel Wilkinson, who resided south of Otterville, were killed Wednesday morning when the truck they were riding in and a Missouri Pacific extra local freight train collided at the second crossing west of the Otterville depot. The accident occurred at 9:35 a.m.

Wilkinson, 42, was driving the 1948 Studebaker 1½-ton truck headed east on a gravel road running parallel to the Missouri Pacific tracks and the road makes a short abrupt turn up and over the railroad tracks. As the truck started across the tracks, the front end of the diesel locomotive crashed mid-center into the truck.

Engineer L. K. Tone, Jefferson City, who was handling the engine, stated the train was traveling 53 miles per hour according to the speedometer in the cab. He said he tooted his whistle several times before reaching the crossing and that the whistle on the second engine was also sounded as the train was reaching the crossing. The brakeman seeing the truck running along the road and starting to make the turn.

The conductor in charge of the train was B. J. Stoner, Kansas City.

Harry Leaton, who resides north of Otterville, said he was standing near the highway when he heard the sounding of the horn on the train.

"Then I heard it blast out," he said, "and turned around and saw the train just as it hit the truck."

"It was horrible," he said. "I rushed over to where the two were lying and Mr. Wilkinson was dead. Mrs. Wilkinson lived about ten minutes before she expired but was unconscious at the time of my arrival."

He also said, "The first time I heard the horn on the train, it was about a half a quarter from the crossing. I was standing talking to Mr. Bixler of the Bixler Gas Co. when the accident occurred."

The truck was carried 195 feet down the track from the crossing. Mrs. Wilkinson was thrown from the truck about 136 feet from the crossing and her husband was about 20 feet east of her body, lying against the transmission of the truck which was torn loose from the vehicle. The truck was demolished.

There were uneasy moments for the spectators around the scene when it was reported the Wilkinsons' son, Gary, 10, was with them and was being taken to a doctor for an ear ailment. A search was begun immediately along the right-of-way, and others drove to the Wilkinson home and some to the home of Mrs. Wilkinson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buchholz, who resided a short distance from the accident scene. It was later learned the boy had stayed at home and was with his grandfather.

Dr. M. L. Diekroeger, Boonville, Cooper County coroner, viewed the bodies at the scene. After an investigation he said an inquest was not necessary as he could see no criminal liability from the accident.

The Wilkinsons and the Buchholz family moved to the Otterville community from Miami, Mo. Wilkinson and his family were residing on the Alfred Smith farm, southwest of Otterville on Route 2. He was a farmer and sawmill operator.

He was born Aug. 17, 1913. Mrs. Wilkinson, whose full name was Carolyn Jean Buchholz Wilkinson, was born May 16, 1916.

They are survived by two children, Gary, a student in the fifth grade, and Judy Ann, 9, in the fourth grade of the Otterville Consolidated School.

The bodies were taken to the Hays-Painter Funeral Home in Otterville. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Will Ask Jury To Investigate Moberly Vice

Prosecutor Carmody Launches New Drive After Being Beaten

MOBERLY (AP)—Prosecutor John F. Carmody, beaten yesterday by an unknown assailant, said today he will ask next week for a Grand Jury to investigate alleged vice conditions in Moberly.

Carmody said he would make the request of Circuit Judge Sam Semple the next time court is convened. This is scheduled for next Tuesday.

"I will ask that a grand jury be empaneled in the February term, or sooner, if possible," the prosecutor said.

Carmody was treated for head and face wounds caused by the assailant who jumped him at his office during the noon hour.

Carmody, serving his second term, has made two unsuccessful efforts to have grand juries empaneled to investigate conditions along Moberly's "Levee District," a section of the city's Main street. His first request, in 1953, was turned down by Judge Lawrence Holman, now a Missouri Supreme Court commissioner. The second, in 1955, was turned down by Judge Sam Semple.

Last April more than a score of arrests were made in the Levee district, charges against the defendants including vagrancy, pandering. Two of the pandering charges still are pending in circuit court.

The attorney told authorities the man jumped him without warning in Carmody's office after having phoned for an appointment with the prosecutor.

The assailant struck Carmody with the head of a ball pen hammer wrapped in a towel. The prosecutor said he had never seen the man.

Carmody, who earlier had said he would not run for a third term in office, declared after yesterday's incident he would seek re-election.

Airplanes Seek Missionaries In Amazon Jungle

QUITO, Ecuador (AP)—Planes combed the Amazon jungle today for five Protestant U.S. missionaries believed seized by savage Indians. Air Force reports of a body lying near their plane's stripped skeleton aroused fears for their lives.

A U. S. Army helicopter was dispatched from the Canal Zone today to take part with Air Force planes in the hunt for the men, missing in a remote jungle region of northeastern Ecuador.

The five men flew their small Piper Cub into the bush area last week to do mission work among primitive tribesmen. They were identified as Nat Saint, Huntington Valley, Pa., a Philadelphia suburb; Edward McCully, Milwaukee; James Elliot, Portland, Ore., and Roger Youderian, Billings, Mont.

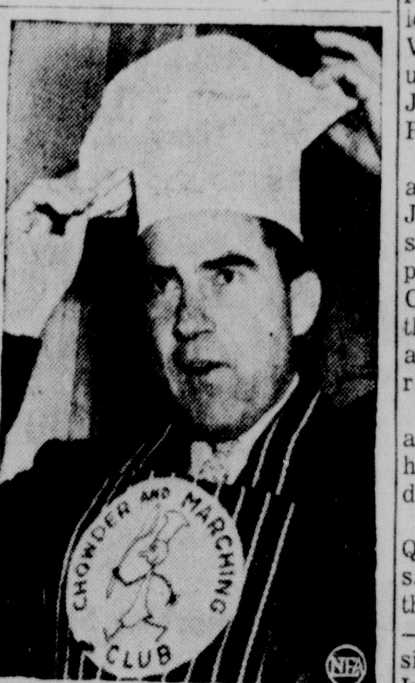

The Air Force joined the search after another flying missionary, John Keenan, made a reconnaissance flight over the area and reported seeing the stripped Piper Cub. He said he saw no sign of the missionaries but spotted several Indian canoes heading down the river.

Keenan made his investigation after the mission party radioed it had encountered a group of Indians, then broke radio contact.

Soon after the hunt began, a Quito radio station relayed a message from a U. S. search plane that it had sighted the Piper Cub—stripped of its fabric—and alongside it a body pierced with an Indian lance.

However, Air Force headquarters in the Canal Zone said its report from the search pilot placed the body about 300 or 400 yards from the plane and made no mention of a lance.

The Air Force emphasized that this report made no identification of the body, either as that of a white man or an Indian.

BIRTHDAY HAT—Vice President Richard Nixon tries out hat and apron of the GOP Chowder and Marching Club during a Washington, D.C., party honoring his 43rd birthday. ### Daisy Bell Circle Holds All Day Meeting

The Daisy Bell Circle of the Epworth Methodist Church held an all day meeting Jan. 4 at the church with Mrs. Stella Haeslip and Mrs. Pearl Morgan as hostesses. A chicken dinner was served at noon. Mrs. May Varney offered a prayer before the members were seated.

After dinner, the business session was opened by the chairman, Mrs. Haeslip, who led in repeating the national club collect. Roll call found 21 present, each answering by giving the number of sick calls made during the month which totaled 87.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. The secretary, Mrs. Maud Horton, reported that 18 cards had been sent and that one of the birthday friends, Mrs. Louiza Plummer, Beuna Vista, had died during the holidays. She also reported that $21.75 was collected, $8.95 of it from the sack sale.

The devotions were opened by Mrs. Frank Henderson, who offered a prayer before reading the selection from the Upper Room for Jan. 4. Others participating in the devotions were, Mrs. Mayme Shelby, who read a poem by Hazel Lang; Mrs. Helen Pfinghoft who read another poem; Mrs. May Varney gave several quotations from various sources which dealt with life and death, and then read the 103 Psalm. Mrs. May Keenan offered a poem which emphasized faults and virtues as seen by true friends. Mrs. Ethel Withers gave an illustration of greatness and Mrs. Ruth Fullerton closed the devotions with two poems.

The members signed 12 cards. A vote of thanks was given to the hostesses, Mrs. Mayme Shelby and Mrs. May Keenan will act as hostesses for the February meeting. All business was transacted and the circle adjourned for a social hour.

Much of Soil Plan Should Pay for Self

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The net cost to the taxpayers of President Eisenhower's soil bank plan to bolster the farm economy probably would be far less than the billion-dollar price tag popularly attached to it.

That is true, at least, if it works as Agriculture Department officials hope it will.

Department officials said the plan—recommended to Congress by Eisenhower in a special message yesterday—would channel about a billion dollars into farmers' pockets this year in the form of cash and commodities from government-held surpluses.

Under one phase of the plan, farmers who underplant their allotments for cotton and wheat would be reimbursed from surpluses of these crops for production they would lose on land made idle under the program.

But this estimated billion dollars in payments would be offset in part by a reduced need for funds to support prices of cotton and wheat and also by smaller amounts needed to pay storage costs on government surpluses.

In 1955, farmers produced about 100,000,000 bushels more wheat than the market will absorb. The excess supply is being turned over to the government under price support guarantees at an average rate of $2.08 a bushel. This will be a government investment of about 208 million dollars in surplus 1955 wheat.

Likewise, cotton production last year was about four million bales more than the market needs. The government will take over the excess under price supports at about $150 a bale, or a total of 600 million dollars.

The goal of the soil bank plan is to hold wheat and cotton crops at or below market needs. If it is put into effect and fulfills its goal, the government would need make no price support investments on these two commodities.

In other words, an effective operation of the soil bank plan would save at least 800 million dollars in new government funds for price supports.

College Student Really Put His Foot In It

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—This is how Stanley Morton Finger put his foot in it:

The 17-year-old Long Beach State College student wanted a date with Ann Jerry, a clerk at the Long Beach Federal Savings & Loan Assn. He went to her cage yesterday and presented this note: "This is a holdup. Drop your head if you will go to the show with me tonight."

But Miss Jerry stepped away and another clerk, Mrs. Wanda A. Wiley, saw the words "This is a holdup." She telephoned police.

Sgt. William Penhollow arrived post-haste and handcuffed the youth. Then 20 police and FBI agents swarmed around him and he was taken to the FBI office and questioned.

Miss Jerry said she knew the youth but never had dated him. Finally, he was released. He'd still

DRESS FOR GRACE—A 44-year-old grandmother with the same measurements as Grace Kelly models a dress made for the Oscar-winning actress by her fan club in Pittsburgh, Pa. The "model" is Mrs. Louise Deluca of Pittsburgh. The club's treasurer, Richard Capone, designed the dress. Club members hope the actress will wear the dress in the movie, "Designing Woman."

Massachusetts Will Resume Mass Salk Vaccine Inoculation

BOSTON (AP)—After months of delay Massachusetts—center of a summer polio epidemic—has decided to resume a mass program of Salk vaccine inoculations.

The Massachusetts Polio Advisory Committee recommended last night that the more recently produced vaccine is sufficiently safe to be given on a mass scale to schoolchildren.

The decision leaves Idaho as the only state which has not given a green light to the Salk vaccine.

In its report, the 19-member committee of prominent Bay State physicians said, "The protection to be expected from the vaccine is now greater than the potential risk to the vaccinated individual and to those with whom he comes in contact."

The committee noted however that "total freedom from live virus cannot be assured in this vaccine and that the vaccine may possibly, or rare instances, induce the disease in those vaccinated and their contacts."

"Furthermore," the report continued, "it recognizes that the search still continues for a suitable substitute for the virulent Mahoney strain."

Physicians were advised to administer vaccine made according to new methods of production and additional safety tests.

The committee said there is no evidence that the recent Massachusetts polio epidemic which hit 3,881 persons and took 163 lives was caused by the vaccine.

Like the date, but—no more notes.

Bails Out of Plane At 7,000-foot Altitude

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Marine Sgt. Robert Riggs of Ponderosa, Ore., bailed out of a flaming Skyraider plane yesterday and two hours later was rescued four miles offshore by a fishing vessel.

The tail section of the craft burst into flames under Radioman Riggs' feet at an altitude of 7,000 feet and he bailed out. The pilot, M. Sgt. Clarence H. Graves of Orange, Calif., and Radioman 2.C. Peter E. McEachron, El Toro, came in at the El Toro Air Station and crash crews put out the fire. Neither was hurt.

Faulty wiring in the tail section was blamed for the fire. Riggs' condition is good. He suffered from exposure only.

Youth Receives Award

Freddie Maples, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Maples, Versailles, was awarded the Versailles Chamber of Commerce courtesy award for December. Maples is an employee of the Gerbes Super Market in Versailles. Floyd Gollman, acting on behalf of the Versailles Chamber of Commerce, made the presentation. Maples was awarded a $25 U.S. Savings Bond and a letter of praise and commendation from Mr. and Mrs. Gerbes who own the supermarket.

Here Are Tips For Protecting And Growing Of House Plants

By HENRY PREE
Written for NEA Service

Midwinter is the time when insects are most likely to be found on indoor plants.

If leaves on the ivy are poor in color and sticky and webby on the underside, red spider is at work. Once this is prevalent, there is little to do but start over with new plants.

Spraying thoroughly both under and top surface of leaves might help. White mealy bugs may be removed with a cotton-tipped toothpick dipped in alcohol.

However, the best insecticide prevention for any plant is weekly spraying with tepid water, making certain to hit underside of the foliage.

If you want to enjoy green foliage in your home during winter and spring, you can have it quickly at little or no cost. Just save some seeds and plants you commonly discard in your kitchen.

Plant them and watch them grow into attractive green plants for your kitchen green plants for your kitchen window, shelves and other places in the home.

Orange, grapefruit, lemon and date seeds planted indoors now make attractive foliage plants. A plant started from orange, grapefruit or lemon seed can be kept for years and will produce wonderfully fragrant blossoms and even fruit.

Don't grow citrus in too warm a place in winter. Transplant to a larger pot as plant gets bigger. Move them outdoors during the summer months.

And you can have a large vine for your window by growing a sweet potato in water. Just look around your kitchen for ideas and things to plant.

For a sweet potato vine, select a sweet potato showing tiny buds on one end. If no buds are seen, force buds by placing the potato on moist peat in a warm room.

Place one-fourth of the root in a jar of water, placing the end with the buds up. Put wedges between the potato and jar, if the jar opening is too large. Sweet potato vines grow their best in a warm, sunny window.

The next time you have a fresh pineapple, cut off the top with a thin part of the shoulder attached. Set it in damp sand until roots have formed.

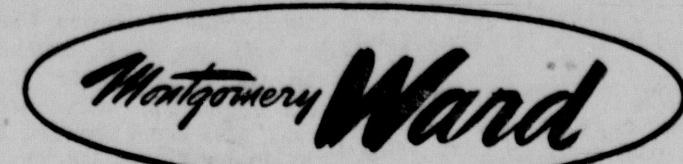

Then pot the rooted top in a mixture of half peat and half soil, with an inch of gravel in the bottom of the pot for drainage. Set it in the full sun and watch it grow.

Oyster Men Look Ahead

MONASKON, Va. (AP)—Virginia's Commission of Fisheries had some encouraging news for Rappahannock river oystermen whose crops were almost wiped out by fresh water from 1955 hurricanes.

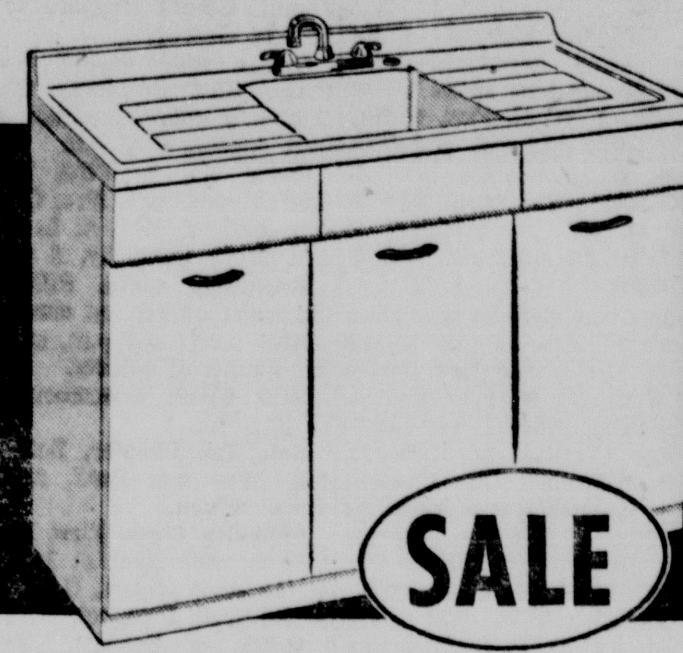

A record crop of baby oysters—known as spat—should rebuild the industry in the damaged area.

Why buy a truck in the dark?

If you buy a new truck after looking at only one make, it's like making a deal in the dark. You can't be sure of getting the most for your money.

A smarter way to buy is to "spotlight" real truck value—weigh and compare competitive claims with these Dodge truck facts:

★ Most standard V-8 horsepower of all leading makes—1/2-ton through 3 1/2-ton range. You'll get faster trips—more work done with DODGE.

★ Shortest turning radius. You'll park more easily, wheel through traffic quicker with DODGE.

★ Biggest cabs, with biggest wrap-around windshield. You'll enjoy roomier comfort, safer vision with DODGE.

★ Highest payload capacities...pick-ups providing up to 22% more payload than others. You'll haul bigger, more profitable loads with DODGE.

★ Prices down with the lowest. Comparative facts show that, feature for feature and dollar for dollar, the real value is DODGE.

Next truck you buy, don't deal in the dark. Turn a bright light on the facts—see Dodge before you buy.

CHINESE LAUNDRY, BRAINWASHING DEPT.: Some of the 21 American POWs, who refused repatriation posed for this photo while they were Red guests in Peking. Since then, four have come home, and findings show the Communist brainwashing doesn't have a lasting effect.

Study Korean POWs Shows Red Brainwashing Washout

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The Chinese Reds either used bad soap trying to brainwash American prisoners of war — or it was the wrong bundle for their political laundry.

Extensive, periodic checks have quietly been made on more than 500 former Korean POWs still in uniform who were reported to have absorbed some part of the Red propaganda line while they were captives.

Results reveal that if the brainwashing did have some temporary effect, it has now all but vanished.

Details of the study are top secret. But the findings are publicly confirmed by the apparent failure of Red brainwashing on the 21 American turncoats who refused to return to the U.S.

Of the 21, four have left China to return to the U.S. Reliable reports indicate that the 16 still left also want to return. One has died. Careful interrogations of the 4,428 POWs turned up reports on 565 of them whose conduct, as a result of brainwashing during captivity, was considered questionable.

Of that number no punishment was ordered for 373. Nine have been convicted by courtsmartial. Cases are either pending against the others or they have already been disciplined.

The big question was whether the mental sores of brainwashing would fester into a more serious trouble, remain chronic or heal.

Now it is apparent that they have healed almost completely — at least among the men still in service. No check has been made of the men discharged.

This does not mean that cases of POW offenses pending against more than 100 men will not be prosecuted, an Army spokesman claims. And the check-up program will be continued, although on a smaller scale.

Former POWs will continue to be questioned by intelligence officers. And other means of determining possible lasting effects of brainwashing will be employed.

But the original fear of the results of brainwashings by the Reds is now gone. This fact could be behind the recent move of the Air Force to relax the curriculum of the mis-named "torture school" it runs at Stead Air Force Base in Nevada.

Purpose of the school is to toughen and prepare Air Force crews for possible capture or crashing in remote areas. Members of classes took part in mock interrogations. Now, however, there will only be demonstrations and no student participation.

Army and Air Force psychiatrists who have been studying the effects of brainwashing now believe that the technique is just a crude, temporary mental conditioning process. It is an attempt to break down old attitudes in a man with an environment of intense physical and mental discomfort.

But as soon as the conditioning environment is removed, it is now claimed, the process stops. With a return to the old environment, the old attitudes return, they've discovered.

The smartest use of psychiatry

Makeshift First Aid

DECATUR, Ill. (AP) — Andrew Neureuther Jr., 14, won the National Boy Scout's Court of Honor Medal.

Nancy Brinkoetter, 6, cut an artery in her arm when she stuck it through a window. Andy applied pressure to the artery until an ambulance arrived. His action was credited with saving her life.

Although Andy's merit badge list includes one each for cooking, swimming, lifesaving and pioneering, he had none in first aid.

by the Reds, the experts do admit, was the screening of captured Americans. With a clever questionnaire and other devices, the Reds were able to determine the men most vulnerable to the temporary effects of brainwashing.

All of the information which the services learned about this subject will be incorporated into a new training program to indoctrinate troops in President Eisenhower's POW Code of Conduct which he issued last summer.

OBITUARIES

Louis Nicholas Yunker

Louis Nicholas Yunker, 77, 317 West Fourth, died at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday at the "MKT" Hospital, Parsons, Kan., where he had been a patient three months. He was born in Hickory Hill June 14, 1878, son of Nicholas and Louisa P. Yunker, who moved to Sedalia when he was a small boy. He was an engineer for over 40 years on the MKT railroad. He married Clara Louise Blatterman Dec. 22, 1897. He was a member of Trinity Lutheran Church and the B.L.F. and E. Local No. 78.

Mr. Yunker, after his retirement from service several years ago, spent his time during the spring and summer months gardening both he and his wife being much interested in vegetables and flowers, she giving special attention to garden and other flowers.

He is survived by: his wife, Mrs. Clara Yunker, a patient at Bothwell Hospital, where she has been since Oct. 7, 1935; three sons, Herbert Yunker, Bishop, Calif., Raymond Yunker, North Hollywood, Calif., and Edward Yunker, Saticoy, Calif.; one daughter, Mrs. Pearl Irene Ledger, North Hollywood, Calif.; eight grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews. One brother and one sister preceded him in death.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Gillespie Funeral Home, with the Rev. David M. Funk, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, assisted by the Rev. Leo Soxman, pastor of the Fifth Street Methodist Church, officiating.

Russell Maag will sing "Jesus, Savior Pilot Me," and "Beyond the Sunset," accompanied by Mrs. Mae Moser, organist.

Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

The Gillespie funeral coach left this morning for Parsons and will arrive in Sedalia late this afternoon with the body.

Charles Jackson Wheeler

Charles Jackson Wheeler, 70, died at his home eight miles south of Sweet Springs Tuesday morning.

He was born Aug. 23, 1866, north of LaMonte, and spent his entire life in that community. He was the son of Walter and Ida Lee Wheeler.

He was a member of the Methodist Church at Sweet Springs and served as superintendent for about 40 years.

He attended Central Missouri State College at Warrensburg and Central College at Fayette.

Mr. Wheeler taught two terms at Eden Valley elementary school in his home district. He also was in the insurance business and received a twenty-five-year pin last spring.

He is survived by one brother, Lawson G. Wheeler, of Redlands, Calif., and three sisters, Mrs. Mary Doyle, of Kansas City, Mrs. Leona Winston, of LaMonte, and Miss Lula Wheeler, of the farm home. He was preceded in death by one brother, Albert.

Funeral services will be held at Blackwater Chapel Church Thursday at 8:00 a.m. with the Rev. M. H. Lafollette, assisted by H. C. Spiva, officiating. Mrs. Carl Clevenger is in charge of the music.

Pallbearers will be Clyde Staats, Earl Clevenger, Raymond Whittall, Edwin Hughes, Kenneth Forsythe, and Albert Rissler.

Burial will be in the Blackwater Cemetery.

The body will be at the Parker Funeral Home in Sweet Springs until Thursday morning at 9:00 a.m. when it will be taken to the family home until time of burial.

Clarence Ewing Terry

Clarence Ewing Terry, 84, died at his home in LaMonte at 4 p.m. Tuesday after a long illness of a heart ailment.

He was born Sept. 23, 1871, at LaMonte, the son of Thomas and Nancy Ewing Terry. He attended Central Business College in Sedalia and was a banker at the LaMonte Bank for more than 50 years. After retiring from banking he was engaged in the insurance business until he was forced to quit because of failing health.

Mr. Terry was married in Kansas City Jan. 11, 1899, to Miss Margaret Parsell, who survives.

He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. W. E. Files, of LaMonte; one brother, F. W. Terry, of Okmulgee, Okla.; and several nieces and nephews.

Mr. Terry's father was one of the original 19 members in organization of the LaMonte Christian Church in 1869 and the son, Clarence, was a member from his early years up to time of his death.

Throughout his adult life he was active in church and Sunday school work holding many offices in furtherance of its progress and being a regular attendant until illness prevented.

His parents both were early day LaMonte residents, Thomas Terry, like his son, having been a banker many years.

Funeral services will be held at the Christian Church in LaMonte at 2 p.m. Thursday, the Rev. Lloyd Pickering, pastor, to officiate, assisted by the Rev. Leon Parsons, pastor of the LaMonte Baptist Church.

A quartet, Lloyd Pickering, Raymond Wasson, Omar Ash and Jerome Schenk; will sing "Blest Be the Tie," "Last Mile of the Way" and "Face to Face." Mrs. M. L. Thompson will be at the organ.

Pallbearers will be Walter Scott, Floyd Ripley, Walter Pace, John Guthrie, Guy Mahin and M. L. Thompson.

Burial will be in the LaMonte Cemetery.

The body will lie in state at the Parker-Moore Funeral Home in LaMonte until time for the services.

Mert O'Brien

Mert O'Brien, 56, Columbia, died at his home sometime Sunday night.

He was born Feb. 22, 1899, in Benton County. He married Bertha Frances Pruitt Sept. 28, 1928, and she survives him.

Other survivors are two brothers, Ed, Sedalia, and F. L., St. Louis; a half-brother, Herman Stout, Sedalia; and a half-sister, Lizzie Edgar, Sedalia.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in Columbia. Burial will be in the Memorial Park Cemetery at Columbia.

The body is at the Memorial Funeral Home in Columbia.

Herman George Jordan

Herman George Jordan, 85, well-known retired gunsmith of St. Louis, died Jan. 4 at his home in Jacksonville, Tex. He had been in poor health for several years.

Mr. Jordan was the husband of the former Mrs. Maude S. Gold of Sedalia, well-known here and for many years with Flower's Dry Goods Co. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan resided in St. Louis prior to their moving to Jacksonville two years ago.

He came to the United States when 19 years old from Hanover, Germany. In later years he was a representative of the Browning gun manufacturing company and came to Sedalia many times.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church.

Funeral services were held at the Holmes Brothers Chapel in Jacksonville with the Rev. Peyton Waddell officiating, assisted by the Rev. Charles Miller, pastor of the Resthaven cemetery at Jacksonville.

Surviving are his wife and two stepchildren, Frederick Conrad Gold of Springfield, Mo., and Mrs. Helen Summers of Jacksonville.

Jordan, son of a German tailor, also was a nephew of the German aristocracy's Rofal Gunsmith and from his uncle learned the secrets of constructing fine firearms.

He came to the United States to help his brother, who operated a bicycle repair and gunshop in Chicago, and their technical skill earned them a blue ribbon in the gunsmith competition at the World Fair of 1893 in Chicago.

A story in the Aug. 31, 1931, issue of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat recalls how Jordan, a "foremost rider of the Lake View Club cycling team," established a United States record in a five-mile bicycle race—pedalling the course in 11 minutes, 9 seconds. The mark stood two years.

Those were the days, Jordan recalled, when everybody rode bicycles and those who didn't simply were "not in the swim."

Later Jordan won a horse and buggy in a 25-mile race against some 300 competitors, but an injury prevented his entering worldwide competition at the World Fair.

His bike racing career, which already had earned him a chest of medals, ended in 1897 when during a night race he soared off the upper lip of a curve on a saucer track and was injured in the 18-foot fall to the ground below.

From that time he devoted his talents to the making of guns and was employed as an expert by major manufacturers as well as operating his own business.

Mrs. Almyra S. Bearing
Mrs. Almyra Selena Bearing, 81, died at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Britton, California, Wednesday about 3 a.m. She had been bedfast for 14 weeks following a series of strokes.

She was born Dec. 25, 1874, daughter of William and Rebecca Reed in Monticue County. She married Ellis Bearing Dec. 25, 1897. He died in November, 1947.

She is survived by: two daughters, Mrs. Thelma Bolinger and Mrs. George Britts, both of California; three sisters, Mrs. Anna Williams and Mrs. Rose Elliott, California, and Mrs. Docia Lawson, Sedalia; and four brothers, Marvin and Hutch Reed, California, John Reed, Knoxville, Tenn., and Ray Reed, Shattuck, Okla. Two sons and two daughters died in infancy.

She was a member of the Flag Spring Baptist Church south of California, and a member of the Business Women's Circle of the church.

Funeral services will be at Flag Spring Church Jan. 12 at 2 p.m. with the Rev. R. H. Streeter, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Hugh Smith officiating.

Burial will be in the church cemetery. The body is at the Bowlin Funeral Home.

Mrs. Mary O'Toole

Mrs. Mary O'Toole, 56, a resident of Sedalia since last September, was found dead in her apartment at 614½ South Ohio Tuesday afternoon. Coroner Gordon Stauffacher stated death was due natural causes.

Mrs. O'Toole's husband, Augustine B. O'Toole, is on overseas duty in France.

Surviving her are: two daughters, Mrs. Richard Schwalbe, 916 South Vermont, visiting in Topeka, Kan., at the time of her mother's death, and Mrs. Fred Webber, Lackawanna, N.Y.; and two sons, Michael O'Toole and Gerald O'Toole, Belleflower, Calif.

The body is at the Ewing Funeral Home awaiting final arrangements.

James E. Combs

James E. Combs, 81, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Lotus Casdorph, at Florence, about 11:15 p.m. Monday.

He is survived by two sons, Gregory Combs, Stover; and Jimmy Combs, of Excelsior Springs; and eight grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Stephens Funeral Home in Stover with the Rev. J. H. DeVries officiating.

Burial will be in the Florence Cemetery.

August Gerken

August Gerken, 71, died Jan. 8 at his home northeast of Emma. He was born March 11, 1864, in Saline County, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claus Gerken from Germany.

On Dec. 4, 1917, he married Miss Gertrude Bockman. He lived his entire life on the farm where he was born. He was a member of the Evangelical Church, attended public school and was a retired farmer. He is survived by: his wife, of the home; one son, Elwood Gerken, Sweet Springs; one daughter, Mrs. Edward Hasemeier, Sweet Springs; one brother, William Gerken, Alba; and four sisters, Mrs. H. E. Schelp, Concordia, and Misses Anna, Louise and Emma Gerken, Concordia, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 1 p.m. at the James Funeral Home, Concordia, and at 1:30 at St. Paul's Evangelical Church at Blackburn, with the Rev. J. W. Becker officiating. Burial will be at St. John's Cemetery, Emma.

Charles Henry Jenkins Services
Funeral services for Charles Henry Jenkins, Otterville, who died Tuesday at his home, will be at 2 p.m. Friday at the Gillespie Funeral Home, the Rev. R. W. Furkin, pastor of the Otterville Presbyterian Church, to officiate.

Honorary pallbearers will be John Kuykendall, James Wear, Sammy Potter, Clyde Wear, Leo Smith and Charles Carson.

Active pallbearers will be Richard Jenkins, Richard Shaw, Richard Leach, Gerald Leade, Joe and Jim Anthony.

The body will be at the Gillespie Funeral Home until after the service.

Burial will be in the IOOF Cemetery, Otterville.

Patrick Anthony Downs Rites
Funeral rites for Patrick Anthony Downs, retired MKT conductor who died Sunday evening at Bothwell Hospital, were held at St. Patrick's Catholic Church at 9 a.m. Wednesday, the Rev. J. T. Nolan officiating.

Pallbearers were: J. G. Hanson, W. A. McMillin, Ed Behen, Steve Timbrious, B. A. Bahner and Claude L. Boul.

The rosary was recited at 8 p.m. Tuesday at the McLaughlin Funeral Chapel, where the body was up to the time for services.

Burial was in the Calvary Cemetery.

Fires

A new home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jackson, who live in the Mt. Moriah community near Pilot Grove, was destroyed by fire about 11 a.m. Monday and barely escaped being trapped in the fire. Nothing was saved or salvaged from the fire.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thomas, who live about three miles east of Pilot Grove, was completely destroyed by fire about 11 a.m. Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were in Sedalia at the time of the fire but Mrs. Thomas' brother, who lives on the farm and was working at the time, heard an explosion and saw that the house was afire.

Cause of the fire was believed to have been connected with the bottled gas used on the farm. The farm is owned by M. C. Ervin, Sedalia.

Republican Committee Opens Meeting to All Forty-six Senators

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Republican Policy Committee, in a move to achieve "more unity and harmony" among various party factions, has decided to open its sessions to all 46 GOP senators.

Chairman Bridges of New Hampshire said the idea was his and that it was adopted at yesterday's committee session.

The committee received many complaints in the past that senators weren't informed of White House requests reaching the group, Bridges said.

The committee, which sometimes determines the party's stand and strategy on legislation, had been limited to nine members until Bridges two years ago enlarged it to include all Republicans up for re-election. This expanded the group to 22 members.

Pensioner Identified As Ex-Millionaire

CHICAGO (AP)—An 8-year-old pensioner who died Sunday in a North Side hotel room has been identified as a onetime Chicago millionaire.

The man was Ellsworth B. Over-shiner, who 40 years ago was president of two independent telephone companies and a stockholder in several other Chicago firms. Deputy Coroner Alex Loeffler said a friend estimated Over-shiner once was worth about 1½ million dollars. He said he lost his wealth through bad mining investments.

White Collar Man Believes He's World's Biggest Sucker

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Curbstone reflections of a pavement Plato: Many a white collar worker today believes he has become civilization's biggest sucker, the forgotten man of the 20th Century. His voice is relatively unheard in the land. Few politicians bother to ask his views or explore his plight. The only people who seek him out are bill collectors, and it is his cash, not his charms, that draws them.

Let us get out our crying towel and listen to the woes of a typical member of the paper clip brigade, which run about as follows:

"Every other class in America seems to get something special from the government except the white collar class. Why are we overlooked? When do we get our turn at the public trough?"

"They talk about a soil bank for farmers. How about a fund to pay for our soiled white collars?"

"Why can't Congress at least vote us some help under the foreign aid program? Certainly no group has been more foreign to government aid than the white collar class."

There is at least an ounce of truth within this pound of bitterness.

Farmers have a lobby. Veterans have a lobby. Manufacturers have a lobby. The unions have a lobby. So do the railroads, the utilities, the airlines, the shipping interests. Even postmen, schoolteachers, toy makers and amateur bird watchers have their lobbies.

About the only two groups in America who don't have a lobby are white collar workers and widows. They remain largely unorganized and therefore, perhaps, unrepresented. Since they cannot punish a politician, why should he worry about them?

Time has passed the white collar man by. That white collar, once a badge of pretended gentility, has become more of a symbol of faceless nonentity. It no longer pays off at the pay window.

It used to be the guys in overalls who stood in line at the loan office seeking to borrow money. Today it's the guys in the dirty-white collars.

The average white collar worker now is the greatest prisoner of the installment plan and the finance company. Debts go with his daily bread.

If he has to fly to see his sick mother, he has to borrow the money.

If he takes a vacation trip, he first has to float a loan.

If he needs a new car, he first has to borrow enough money for a new suit in order to look presentable enough to persuade a finance company to advance him the dough to make the down payment on the automobile.

He is in hook up to his eyeballs—this average white collar worker—for everything from his furniture to the filings in his teeth. At least he claims he is.

And he feels he fights his personal emergencies alone. The federal government shows no signs of creating a new Cabinet post, "Secretary of the White Collar Class."

The white collar man is haunted not only by his present predicament but by fears for the future. He is afraid automation scientists will dream up new and more efficient business machines that will do away with his very job, turning him into a refugee from progress.

The white collar has lost its prestige. The engineer is the hero of our times. And many an office peasant now wishes that, instead of wearing a white collar, he had been born with a slide rule in his mouth.

Where is the man on a white

Police Not Surprised

TOKYO (AP)—Police weren't too surprised when they discovered a number of counterfeit 1,000-yen coins worth $2.77.

But they were amazed to find nine counterfeit 50-yen coins this week in Kyushu. The coin is worth 14 cents.

"This coin is well made," a police spokesman said. "I hadn't realized labor is so cheap in Japan."

The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington national cemetery has one of the largest single blocks of marble quarried in America. It came from an almost solid mountain of marble in Colorado, and was cut to size in Vermont.

horse who will lead the white collar class back to its old security? He is nowhere in sight. Alas, even white horses are getting scarcer.

New Oil Drilling Rules for Game Refuges

Guest Editorial—

An intuitive recognition of these fallacies is what makes a recent survey of teen-age opinion so refreshing. As to what to do about the guilty offender, the youngsters overwhelmingly replied in effect: Stop him in his tracks. As to what caused the behavior, they spoke earnestly of failures in parental love, sympathy, understanding and, especially, guidance.

Note — Congress passed the first wildlife refuge act under President Teddy Roosevelt and with the inspiration of the famous conservationist, Gifford Pinchot. Each game refuge is authorized by Congress; unless it is a gift by the state or a private individual.

Common Sense Best For Delinquency

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

A large dose of plain, old-fashioned common sense is the best cure for problems of juvenile delinquency, says Sir Basil Henriques, who, recently retired after 18 years as chairman of the East London Juvenile Court.

Tall, silver haired and one of Britain's foremost authorities on the problems of the young, Sir Basil paused briefly in New York at the start of a nationwide lecture sponsored by the British Foreign Office.

"I blame many of the ills of today's young people on unrealistic educational theories which ignore the characteristics of real life and try to train young people in an environment where there are no punishments, no rewards, no competition and no repression," he said.

"Naturally some of the youngsters go berserk when they leave school to meet a world where things become unpleasant if you break the rules, where the rewards of integrity and skill are great, where life is constantly competitive and where it is necessary to exercise some repression."

"Some of the so-called progressive schools instill in children the idea that they should exercise every whim at any time, that they must express themselves, no matter how disastrous the results, that if they don't like to read or do sums they don't have to, and that, no matter what they do they will never be punished."

"I believe you have more of this kind of schools in America than we do in Britain, but even there discipline is much more lax than it used to be."

The sun is approximately three million miles nearer the earth on Dec. 21, the winter solstice, than on June 21, the summer solstice.

Last Word in Farm Machinery

Curly Lawson was first in this area to use one of those roadside vending machines. He's sold milk and eggs in one about a year now, and recommends them highly—but with reservations.

"Mine's the latest model," says Curly. "Built-in refrigeration unit—heater—an automatic sign turn-on for night. Takes any combination of coins."

"However," he warned, "those machines aren't cheap to buy ... or operate. They run about $3500. If you're not on the main highway like I am—where lots of city people pass—you'd better stick to the old methods."

From where I sit, you have to admire Curly for his pioneering spirit. Of course, there's also plenty to be said for those who tend to stick to the old proven methods. People's ideas differ on the subject—on any subject. Like you may always drink buttermilk with your meals ... while a glass of beer's the "automatic" choice with me.

French Movie Maker Arouses Female Ire By Love Comment

LONDON (AP)—A complaint by French movie maker Rene Clair that the high cost of living is ruining love—even in France—brought

France, Spain Agree to Join Against Riffs

LARACHE, Spanish Morocco (AP)—France and Spain have agreed on joint action against Riff rebels harassing the French in Morocco. Lt. Gen. Rafael Garcia Valino, the Spanish high commissioner, and French Resident General Andre Dubois decided at a meeting yesterday their forces would cooperate in suppressing the rebellious tribesmen along their joint frontier.

The four-hour conference in this Spanish sector was the first meeting in three years of the top officials of the two protectorates. Informants said they made progress in reconciling conflicting policies which have caused tension between France and Spain ever since the French threw out Sultan Mohammed Ben Youssef in 1953. Spain charged the ouster was illegal and openly sympathized with the Sultan's nationalist followers who finally forced the French to bring Ben Youssef back. The Spanish changed their tune when French promises of home rule for the Moroccans brought nationalist demands that the Spanish do the same.

France also accused Spain of aiding the Riff guerrillas, who brought strife to the eastern part of the French zone in recent months. The Spanish denied the charges but took no action against the Riffs.

The bulk of yesterday's discussion reportedly centered on the future of Ben Youssef's "empire," which technically includes the Spanish protectorate and the international zone of Tangier, as well as French Morocco, where he makes his home.

The Moroccan nationalists want both Spain and France to pull out and leave their country united and independent.

Both Spain and France say they favor eventual autonomy for their North African protectorates, but Madrid fears Paris is moving Morocco toward independence too rapidly.

a flood of feminine objections today.

Clair, who has made millions out of his films about love, mused over the state of the art during a recent interview here.

"When I was 17," sighed the 57-year-old movie maker, "I had a little bachelor's attic up under a Paris roof. Here I could allow myself a love life, but today no young man could afford such a place."

It was suggested that no young Frenchman would be stopped by such a thing as not having a roof over his love affair.

"Ah, my friend," said Clair, "you are wrong. You forget the French love of comfort. The young man would not mind, but his lover would usually be a woman of 35. She would never like to be loved outdoors. When they are 35 and over they just don't like it."

That did it. The girls leveled their sights on Clair.

"Nonsense," said 39-year-old Shirl Conway, an actress. "Indoors or outdoors—it makes no difference at any age provided the woman is in love."

"Truth is that before 35 a woman is shy about necking. But, I think it's much more romantic in the open air when the stars are shining and the night is warm."

Said novelist Daphne du Maurier, 48: "Put the age up to 45 and I might agree with him—but not at 35."

Avis Scott, 30, film actress and TV star said:

"Why, out of doors is a splendid place for romance. If a woman really needs comfort with her love she can't really be in love with her man."

Clair refused to even discuss the question of how an American woman might look on outdoor love-making.

"Americans are afraid of love," he said.

Personal Creed Causes Fire Hazard

NORTH HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The reason Otto F. Timmsen hasn't placed a firebreak around his mountain property is that his personal creed forbids him to destroy anything that lives.

Cutting a firebreak, he explained to Judge Morton Barker, would involve the destruction of shrubs and other plant life that abound in his area.

The Fire Dept. had charged Timmsen with maintaining a fire hazard and failing to clear a 30-foot firebreak.

The judge took the case under submission.

Sen. Johnston Says Demos Kept No Reds

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC) said today the Eisenhower administration has never offered evidence that it found a single Communist on the government payroll when it came into power.

He made the comment to newsmen as a Senate Civil Service subcommittee he heads went to work on a report of its investigation of the employee security program set up by order of President Eisenhower in May 1953.

Chairman Philip Young of the Civil Service Commission estimated at a subcommittee hearing yesterday that about 41 per cent of the employees listed as fired or resigned under the program were hired under the Eisenhower administration, which took over three years ago.

The hearing brought at least a temporary halt to the subcommittee's inquiry, begun last spring. Its authority expires at the end of this month, but Johnston has introduced a resolution to renew it for another year.

Johnston told newsmen he felt the inquiry had been helpful in throwing light on how the security program operates and on how figures are compiled on the number of employees listed as fired as security risks.

Johnston and other Democrats have accused Republicans of making "a political numbers game" out of the figures and of attempting to convey the impression that the Eisenhower administration found a lot of Communists or Communist sympathizers on the federal payroll.

He said the administration has "never shown" that it found a single Communist working for the government. Nor, he said, has it obtained the indictment of any federal employee under a law making it illegal for a Communist to work for the government.

Radioactive Device Missing From Site Of Construction

MILFORD, Conn. (AP)—A trinket-sized device with deadly radioactive rays is missing from a construction site here and police fear someone may have picked it up, not knowing its danger. The object is an inch and a half long.

Shortly after the device was reported missing from property of the Connecticut Light & Power Co. yesterday, police issued a public appeal for the person who may have it to dispose of it in a vacant lot, telephone police and report immediately to a hospital.

The shiny device, used by the United Engineers Construction Co. to photograph steel, was left hanging on the end of a cord on the construction site yesterday. It was set in position to make a 30-minute exposure of steel.

Officials of the construction firm said the invisible rays emanating from the device would not kill instantaneously but would bring about a deadly illness. The rays kill off white blood corpuscles in the body they said.

The firm said there was a possibility it could have fallen to the floor of the building in which it was

People Leave Theatre After Woman Claims Bomb Planted There

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Seventy persons were asked to leave the Vogue Theatre after the manager received a telephone call saying that a maniac had placed a bomb in the theater. Police were summoned but their search yielded no bomb. Patrons were ushered back into the theater. Manager Dan Finzer said a woman telephoned him that her husband was a maniac and was enroute to the theater with the bomb.

Oldest Holstein Dies

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Old Lucifer, who fathered 45,190 sons and daughters and is expected to sire some 3,000 more, died yesterday. The Holstein bull, whose full name is Lauxmont Admiral Lucifer, was believed to be the oldest bull in artificial breeding service in the United States. He died at the advanced age of 17 years and 4 months, equal to 95 years in the human span of life.

A geiger counter search of the entire area failed to turn it up.

Experts Say Russia Boosts Pull In Africa

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Russia is increasing her influence in Africa, Western experts on African affairs report. They cite advances from diplomatic representatives which say:

In Libya, along the northern roof of Africa, Russia's first ambassador, Nikolai Ivanovich Generalov, is establishing a full-scale diplomatic mission with 18 aides. Generalov was Soviet ambassador in Australia at the time of the defection of Vladimir Petrov, who claimed later he was at the center of a widespread espionage network.

In the Sudan, which became an independent republic Jan. 1, the government is weighing a Soviet offer to establish full diplomatic, trade and economic relations. The Sudanese also are understood to be considering informal suggestions from the Communists that economic and technical aid will be available to them if they should ask for it.

In the West African republic of Liberia, a Soviet good will delegation has offered to establish diplomatic relations. The Russians also offered engineering and financial help for the construction of a big hydroelectric project on the St. Paul River.

The Soviets already have major diplomatic missions in Cairo and in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

Certain Western officials express fear that Soviet representatives in Libya might be in a position to establish contacts with the nation-

City Passes Law Against Signs Directing Traffic

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—This city has admitted defeat in its attempt to punish a man who waved a sign warning drivers of a radar speed trap ahead.

In the same breath it gave notice yesterday that since Jan. 3 it has had a law on the books that will take care of such situations in the future.

The legal twist which Asst. City Atty. Frierson Graves cited says no one can "show any sign which attempts to direct parking or movement of traffic."

Graves did not oppose an appeal from a $16 fine. It was filed by J. W. Evans, who was charged with interfering with an officer in the line of duty.

Evans aroused police ire by spotting a hidden peed trap on a busy city thoroughfare and posting himself a few blocks above it with a hastily painted warning sign.

He did very well until a suspicious cop backtracked along the street to see what was slowing things down.

Garage Owner Offers Reward to Thieves

GEORGETOWN, Ky. (AP)—George Gaines, garage owner, offered a reward to—not for—thieves yesterday. He said if valuable papers stolen from his safe were returned, he would let the thieves keep $200 also taken, would give them $150 reward and would not prosecute. He said the safe contained records and other papers.

Los Angeles People Have New Ailment

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A new ailment has been diagnosed for the Los Angeles population—freewayitis. The Police Dept. says the disease, common to motorists using the extensive freeway system, is a combination of nervous indigestion and claustrophobia. It's likely to reach epidemic proportions during peak traffic hours.

Future Menus Reflect More Protein Foods, Easier Prices

By GAYNOR MADDOX

NEW YORK — Looks like "Happy New Year" to meat eaters and "More Power To You" for consumers of eggs, milk products and poultry.

For the family dinner table, the outlook for protein foods at easier prices is rosy. To the farmer-producer the outlook is not so good. But on the packing industry and rail and truck lines the sun promises to shine brightly.

"More meat and increased consumer demand plus full employment for the meat packing industry — that's our outlook for 1956," reports Porter M. Jarvis, president of Swift & Co., Chicago.

He expects total meat output to reach or exceed 27 billion pounds, a little more than last year. But population growth will hold consumption per person to a little under 160 pounds.

Our per capita consumption of meat, although going up, is still considerably below New Zealand, Denmark, Australia, Argentina and Uruguay. Uruguay tops the list with 248 pounds per person.)

"Livestock growers enter 1956 with a plentiful supply of feed grains, forage crops and prospects for lower feed costs.

"However, this favorable factor is offset by very sharp drop in livestock prices in the last few months," Jarvis added. "Although there is good consumer demand, it is at sharply lower prices. This works a severe hardship on producers."

A spokesman for Armour & Co. reports that many government and non-government agencies are trying to help the livestock grower in this predicament. They are working on ways to produce better meat at lower costs. One of the latest developments is stillbirth feeding. "Savings like this help everyone concerned," Armour's spokesman said. "But when livestock producers can lower production costs, they will do their best to retain the benefits."

All packers stress the growing demand for the more expensive cuts of meat. Also a trend toward "convenience" foods, which cost more. Both Armour and Swift report more meat is being packaged

The demand for frozen cubed steaks, chopped beef patties and veal liver is growing despite higher retail prices. The same goes for frozen stuffed turkeys, fully cooked, skinless and shankless hams, and fat-trimmed pork products.

To capitalize on this strong buying trend, the meat industry plans to expand research on "convenience" packaging.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture predicts that milk production in 1956 will hit a new high. It may reach 127 billion pounds as compared to 124 1/2 billion for 1955.

The D. of A. also predicts greater production of eggs, chickens and turkeys. Egg prices, in particular, are likely to be lower than last year.

The food picture looks good to everybody but the fellow who produces it. Although the consumer will have more money to spend, according to current estimates, he will demand more processed and convenience foods and better merchandizing.

That means that less of his budget dollar will go back to the far-

All Evidence Points to Big Year for Dons

By BEN OLAN
The Associated Press

Sometime, somehow, the San Francisco Dons are going to be beaten. The big question today is "Who's going to do it?"

From all indications the Dons are going to run up a college basketball winning streak to end all winning streaks.

The nation's top-ranked team won its 38th straight game last night, trouncing Santa Clara 74-56 to move within one victory of tying the all-time major college record held by Long Island University (1935-1937) and Seton Hall (1939-1941).

Next on the San Francisco agenda is Fresno State Friday night in the likely record-equaler. And if the Dons get past California Jan. 23 there's no telling when they'll be stopped.

Last night, the Dons ran up a 26-2 lead in the first nine minutes with Mike Farmer, Bill Russell, Hal Perry and Carl Boldt doing most of the damage. Farmer was the game's high scorer with 18 points.

Two other teams among the top 40 also scored impressively. Duke's Blue Devils, No. 6, man-handled South Carolina 63-52 and ninth-rated North Carolina walloped Virginia 101-65.

In other games, Holy Cross, No. 11, romped over Rhode Island 105-61. Furman tripped Richmond 94-85 in a Southern Conference tilt. George Washington Beat Wake Forest 78-74. Kansas State racked up a 61-50 Big Seven victory over Oklahoma. Rice ran over Texas Christian 80-60 in the Southwest Conference and Dartmouth defeated Harvard 71-58 in the Ivy League.

Duke, which handed North Carolina State its first setback in 23 starts last Saturday, trailed 26-19 near the end of the first half, but pumped in five layup shots in a row to take command.

Holy Cross had an easy time of it all the way, running up its highest point total of the season.

All America Darrell Floyd netted 22 points for Furman, but he was outscored by teammate Fred Fraley, who shot his team into a 47-40 lead at the intermission. Fraley wound up with 27.

LaMonte Chalks Up Cage Victory Over Hughesville

The LaMonte High cagers held command of all activity on their court Tuesday when they rolled over a visiting Hughesville team to an 86-68 degree. LaMonte's girls' volleyball team proved equally effective by humbling the Hughesville girls 20-14.

In the volleyball contest Chevalier of the victors topped the scoring with five points as Horn and Hammond led Hughesville with four each.

LaMonte players in the basketball game piled up a convincing lead on superior scoring stands in the first three quarters which was enough to offset a fourth-quarter rally by their opponents.

The LaMonte quintet exploded in the opening stanza with a 28-11 assault followed by a 22-19 edge in the second period. The third quarter also found LaMonte on the big end of the scoring, 22-12, which boosted the lead to 72-42.

Resting on a lead as plush as this, the LaMonte crew was unhurt by a 14-26 deficit administered by Hughesville in the final frame and coasted to an easy win.

Files was high scorer of the evening by bucketing 27 points for LaMonte. Ringen of Hughesville collected 22.

Officials were Cooper and Reynolds. LaMonte will play its next tilt Friday at Cole Camp at 7:30 p.m.

Satterfield Aims For 31st Knockout

CHICAGO (AP)—Bob Satterfield, one of boxing's most lethal punchers, aims for his 31st knockout victory tonight against another slugging Chicago heavyweight, Johnny Holman.

Satterfield, 32, will be spotting from 15 to 20 pounds to his foe in the nationally televised 10 rounder at Chicago Stadium (9 p. m. CST-ABC).

Belting Bob twice clobbered Holman in 1954 and also has taken care of such other big boys as Nino Valdes and Bob Baker in compiling a 40-19-3 record.

The 28-year-old Holman has 17 knockouts in a 28-11-1 record.

Phil Rizzuto Signs First 1956 Contract With the Yankees

NEW YORK (AP)—No more glasses for the Scooter.

"No, sir," said little Phil Rizzuto today. "I visited my eye doctor yesterday and he told me that my eyes were stronger than at any time in recent years."

The veteran New York Yankee shortstop, who probably will look like a collegian when he is 77, said his sight was even better than normal.

"Therefore," he added, "I don't need them, not even for reading. So I won't wear them in spring training."

Rizzuto, who is 37 and the oldest Yankee of them all, was strictly a part-time operator last season when he donned the specs. It was an unusual sight to watch him dig into the dirt for a grounder with the glasses exposed.

After having his eyes examined, he breezed into the Yankee office and signed his 1956 contract, the first member of the American League champions to come to terms.

The figures weren't announced, but estimates ranged from $25,000 to $30,000. He took a healthy cut, he admitted, and there was some dickering with General Manager George Weiss.

Bevo Francis Lowers Score, Better Game

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Bevo Francis, who had the basketball world buzzing when he played for Little Rio Grande College, is still scoring points at a pretty good clip, and his coach says he's a better player.

Francis is averaging 23.4 points with the Boston Whirlwinds, who are touring the country with the Harlem Globetrotters, the Philadelphia Sphas and the Washington, D.C., Generals.

His current average is nowhere near the 50.01 points he averaged at Rio Grande in the 1952-53 and 1953-54 seasons, but as Boston Coach Sid Goldberg said in Salt Lake City yesterday:

"His competition against the play for pay boys is much stiffer than at Rio Grande, where he played against many junior college teams. And his whirlwind average has been built up during a back-breaking schedule of more than 300 games in the past two years."

"Bevo was clumsy in college. His 6-9 height and tremendous shooting eye enabled him to score a lot of points, but he was a mediocre defensive player and he lacked floor finesse."

"Now, in addition to being the team's top scorer, he also leads in rebounds and is great at bringing the ball down the floor."

Bevo, who is 23, is willing to learn.

"I plan to play basketball for a living for several years," he said. "And if I want to stay in the game I've got to know everything there is about it."

Houston Player Shoots For 2000-Point Cage Record This Week

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Seven-foot Don Boldebeck, Houston's senior pivot, shoots for the 2,000-point career mark this week against defensive specialists Tulsa and Oklahoma A&M in a wicked two-game road trip.

Only 10 other players in major college annals have cracked the 2,000-point barrier. Big Bo is a cinch to make it this season but there's some doubt he can do it against the control specialists coached by Clarence Iba (Tulsa) and his brother Henry (Oklahoma A&M).

Boldebeck, the No. 2 scorer in the Valley behind Detroit's Bill Ebben, averaged 23.1 for his first 10 games this season, giving him a career total of 1,940 points through games of Jan. 7. Of that total, 1,103 came at Nebraska Wesleyan before he transferred to Houston.

Ebben's lead was cut out he's still safely in front with 25.6. Grady Smith of St. Louis stayed in third with 20.3, Bob Hodgson of Wichita fourth with 19.7 and Jim McLaughlin of St. Louis fifth at 17.6.

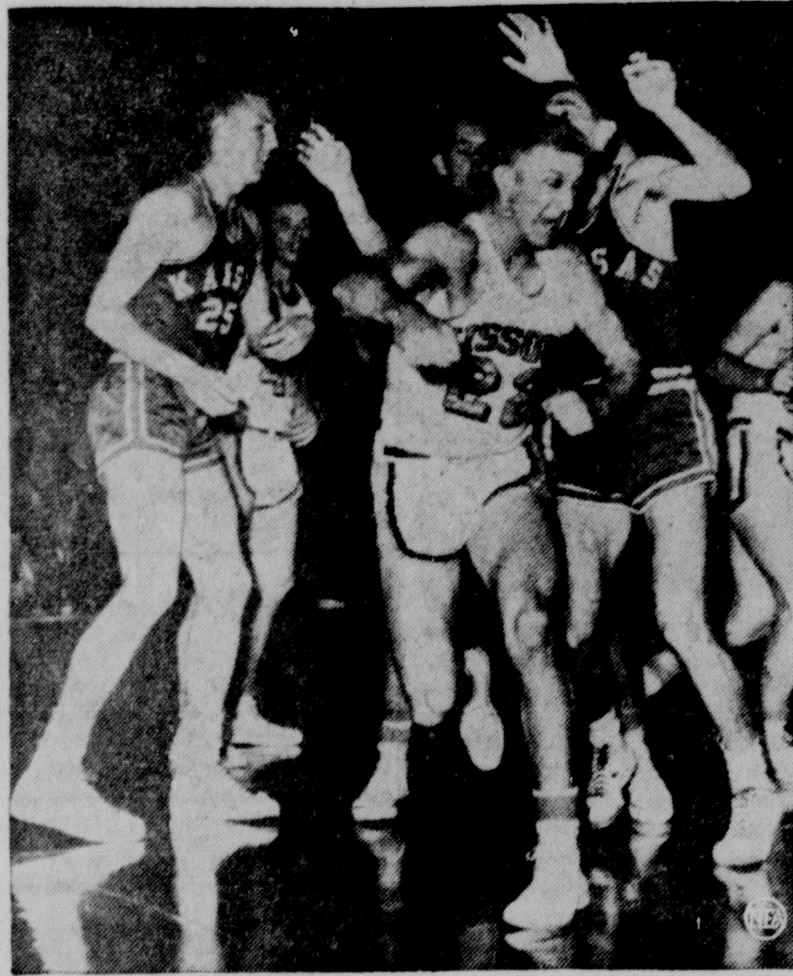

Rookies Shellie McMillon (15.9) and Barney Cable (15.0) of Bradley head the second five. It's a close race for the last three spots. Houston's Dan Dotson has 14.2, Joe Todd of St. Louis moved back into the top 10 with 14.1 and Junior Born of Tulsa has 14.0.

A sellout crowd of 25,000 is expected.

Perez Defends World Championship Title

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Pascual Perez, unbeaten in his 25-fight career, defends his world flyweight championship against Leo Espinosa of the Philippines, tonight at Luna Park in the first world title bout ever held in Buenos Aires.

A sellout crowd of 25,000 is expected.

Casey Jones Case Hovers Over NCAA
LOS ANGELES (AP)—The "Casey Jones case" loomed large today at the business session of the 50th annual National Collegiate Athletic Assn. convention.

Jones is the captain and ace play-maker of the national champion University of San Francisco basketball team, No. 1 club in the nation last winter and this. His eligibility for this year's NCAA tournaments—a big share of the undefeated Don's hopes of winning their second straight title—hung on the decision of the some 200 voting delegates.

The 6-2 senior guard presently is ineligible for tournament play under NCAA regulations. Technically he has exhausted his eligibility for any competition, but the California Basketball Assn. of which USF is a member has ruled that he may play in regular season games.

NCAA Considers Television, Track Meets and Doghouse

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The University of Miami in Florida must remain in the doghouse for another year, the matter of football television must be settled and a lively fight involving small college basketball and track meets is in prospect.

That was the picture today 'as the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. convention went into its final stages.

The NCAA Council, which is the powerful policy directing body of the organization, last night extended the probation of Miami for one year.

The probation, second most stringent punishment in the books, keeps Miami ineligible for all NCAA championship events and participation in such invitational affairs as football bowl games, the Drake and Penn relays, and the Sugar Bowl midwinter games, all staged by agencies which abide by NCAA rulings.

The school was originally cited in October 1954 and placed on probation for one year on three counts.

The probation was continued until this convention pending a further study of affairs in Miami.

Originally, Miami was accused of paying transportation costs to the campus of prospective athletes, trying out the prospects and excessive use of grants in aid.

A subsequent examination by a representative of the committee on infractions brought the allegation of rule violations involving a loan fund for medical students and athletes, known as the Eaton Foundation.

Also suspect was a matter of outside financial aid rendered to two unidentified athletes during the period of probation.

The NCAA in its business session today was expected to ratify the council's action.

Up for action too was a recommendation that television controls be continued in 1956, patterned after the 1955 program.

This consisted of eight national and five regional telecasts.

The expected controversy over the small college tournament activity centered on the proposal that the NCAA stage an annual basketball and track and field meet restricted to this class of school.

The issue was whether this proposal would wreck the already established National Intercollegiate Athletic Assn., which has been conducting meets for five years.

Horton, who rose to international golfing prominence around 1930 as a professional golfer, served as the golf professional at the Sedalia County Club in 1926-27. He is former president of the PGA, having also served as secretary of the organization.

Mr. Smith presently resides in Detroit, Mich., where he is the golf professional at the Detroit Golf Club.

Following his visit here he left for Springfield, Mo., where he also once resided and served as a golf pro. He was called from Detroit recently because of the death of his father at Springfield.

Three seasons ago Jones, then a sophomore, played in the don's appendix. He told no one he was ill, but three lights later as the team headed for its second game he collapsed and was taken to a hospital. He remained there for six weeks before he could be taken home and played no more that season.

As NCAA regulations now stand, Jones' appearance in the one game used up a full season of eligibility. There is no appeal from the eligibility rule through committee. The only way Jones will be permitted to play in this season's tournaments will be by vote of convention delegates to grant him a waiver.

Although All-America center Bill Russell has been the headline maker through the Dons' current two-season 38-game winning string, Jones' passing and ball-handling have keyed the offense and his direction and operation of the full-court press have been major items in the team's defensive play.

Poultry Marketing Problem Gets Increased Attention

By TED JOULE
MU Extension Economist in Poultry Marketing

For years we have thought primarily of the production phase of the poultry industry. While this remains an important part of the industry, the marketing phase of the industry is receiving increased attention.

Marketing is directly connected with consumer acceptance. Consumers are constantly changing their ideas as to what amount and quality they want of a certain product. This is certainly true of poultry products.

What are some of the changes in demand for poultry products? Here's what consumers would like to have and want in eggs:

1. A dependable source of supply.
2. Eggs made available from a refrigerated supply.
3. Clean eggs.
4. High quality. (There has been a big increase in demand for quality.)
5. Uniform yolk color.
6. Some consumers have preferences on shell color.
7. Consumers want to see what they are buying (cartons with windows, etc.).

8. There is an increase demand for egg products for use in cake mixes, candies, ice cream, etc.

- In poultry meats, consumers want:
1. Product to be oven or pan ready.
  2. Choice of cuts.
  3. Variable quantities to fit size of family.
  4. A quality product.
  5. Prepared and ready to serve products such as frozen pies and dinners.

These are just a few of the factors involved in the changing demand for poultry products. The poultry industry has made great strides in meeting these demands and consumption is increasing rapidly because of consumer acceptance.

From now on the poultry industry must balance production and marketing to fit the needs and wants of the consumers. And 1956 can be another banner year in this development.

Two in the family? Cook a half package of frozen vegetables at a time. Or cook the whole package and use what is not eaten for a planned-over dish.

New Program Called CBS Sunday News

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—CBS-TV has an excellent new program in CBS Sunday News presided over by Eric Sevareid. It fills a void in weekend television news programming.

In his first edition last Sunday Sevareid showed that he recognizes front page news. That's worthy of mention because some television commentators sacrifice front page news for secondary news—chiefly because films of the less important events are available.

As time passes it's probable that Sevareid will be haunted by a frequent paucity of important weekend news. One hopes that he and his CBS force will develop a great variety of news features which on many a dull weekend could well fill 25 minutes of the 30 minutes allotted to CBS Sunday News.

A good example of a news feature was shown Sunday in a report from London on British commercial television.

George Schaefer is one of the most skillful directors in television, as his work on Hallmark Hall of Fame (NBC-TV) regularly reveals. Perhaps it was not his fault that "The Corn Is Green," as seen on television Sunday, was inferior to the Broadway stage presentation many years ago starring Ethel Barrymore.

Eva Le Gallienne, as a woman who wants to bring enlightenment to a dark bit of Wales, simply lacked the warmth, gusto and conviction that Miss Barrymore once brought to the role. John Kerr lacked the tough abrasive quality of a young Welsh miner. The result, to one viewer, was rather wooden drama—at least in the first hour of the hour and a half show.

The kindest one can be about The NBC Comedy Hour, which was launched on NBC-TV opposite the Ed Sullivan Show on CBS-TV, is this: Let's pretend it wasn't launched last Sunday. Let's pretend it's going to be launched next Sunday when the ways are better greased.

Jonathan Winters and Bob and Ray supplied some fun, but the rest of the hour fell flat. Just what to do about it must be troubling many earnest minds. For one thing, has anybody considered

Armstrong Would Make U.S. Friends

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Louis Armstrong, America's ambassador without portfolio but with horn, is willing to continue making friends for this country wherever he's sent—even behind the Iron Curtain.

"Russia? That's okay with me," he says. "They say the Russians don't like music, but that couldn't be true. Some of the best music in the world has come out of Russia. 'Porgy and Bess' opened up there and it was a big smash. If they want me to go, I'll go."

"I'll go wherever they send me. It's just like when I was delivering coal. If the company sent me, I'd bring a load to your house. If you'd pay me an extra 30 cents, I'd even stash it in your basement."

"Me, I just like to play this horn. If I can make friends for us with it, that's fine. And music seems to do that. A note is a note in any language, and those foreign audiences are really hep. In some of those countries, it's just like going down to New Orleans and playing for all the cats I used to know."

Louis Daniel Armstrong, who still blows the best horn in the business at 55, is taking a rest from his globe trotting to make a movie. The "Philadelphia Story" moved to the Newport, R.I., jazz festival and retitled "High Society." Among the high socialites: Bing Crosby, Grace Kelly, Frank Sinatra.

Afterward, Armstrong sat down to talk about his tours. He has been to Europe five times, playing from Spain to Sweden, and has ventured as far as Australia and Japan.

"The cats are wild wherever I go," he said. "After we play 'Back Home in Indiana,' they're with us all the way. It brings the joint down. But then I'll play a quiet number like 'Tenderly' and you won't be able to hear a sound in the auditorium."

"Everywhere you go, they're friendly. They come up and give you little cards for membership in their jazz clubs. The club in Zurich didn't have much money, but they chipped in and bought me this watch. Ain't it a beauty? They got all my records. Some even have two copies of each, in case they break one."

Kentuckians List Non-taxable Property On 1956 Tax Returns

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Some tax-paying Kentuckians aren't up to snuff on their news, or else they're downright generous. In November, voters abolished all taxes on household goods effective Jan. 1. But yesterday, County Tax Commissioner George Trager said 132 of the first 335 property tax returns received in 1956 listed household goods for taxation. He said the tax will not be assessed.

Margaret O'Brien Has Never Seen Own Movie

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Margaret O'Brien was probably the only person in a crowded room yesterday who had never seen Margaret O'Brien play in a movie.

The 18-year-old star—in Lexington today for the world premier of "Glory"—was guest of honor at a get-together when she told a reporter she had never seen herself on the movie screen.

"I like to go to movies and see other people but I don't want to see myself," said Margaret. And she doesn't expect to see "Glory," either.

Handcuffed While In Dentist's Chair

DENVER (AP)—A feller doesn't have a fightin' chance these days. County jail prisoners remain handcuffed when they enter the dentist's chair at Denver General Hospital, Warden Gordon Dolliver ordered yesterday. All because an accused robber, James J. Giron, 31, slugged a guard and tried to escape when officers removed the steel links as Giron was about to enter the chair.

Psychiatrist Says A Little Neurosis Is Great Asset

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A University of Utah psychiatry professor advises: Don't take offense if someone calls you a neurotic. A neurosis can be one of your greatest assets, says Dr. C. H. Hardin Branch, provided it isn't so bad that it causes disability.

Branch says a little neurosis serves to fire ambition and make a person creative and productive. But he says a neurosis is a disease when it becomes severe enough to prevent a person from getting along with others or from carrying out his daily tasks efficiently.

Ladies Will Look Ladylike This Spring

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Ladies will look ladylike this spring, whether in slim daytime sheath dresses that fit them like the paper on the wall, or in floating clouds of chiffon after dark.

There are two extremes in the new fashions for spring, as shown this week to some 200 visiting fashion editors representing newspapers throughout the country. One is the straight, narrow, understated column silhouette. The other is the strictly feminine, often full-skirted, always flattering cocktail or evening gown.

Roxane, designing for Samuel Winston, revives a gentle and nostalgic fashion in her pleated chiffon short formal dresses. An outstanding example is a dress of gossamer-thin black silk chiffon, its full skirt using yards and yards of tiny plants, its bodice smoothly fitted with neckline scooped to the back, with a waist-length cape of the same pleated chiffon tied at the neck with narrow silk shoestrings. There is something definitely alluring and utterly feminine about black chiffon, a fact that some designers have overlooked for the past few seasons. Roxane rediscovers it, and uses her discovery with telling effect.

Karen Stark, designing for Harvey Berin, also shows a beautiful and feminine collection accenting slim lines for daytime, full skirts for party wear, and her signature touches such as lace appliques and inserts, delicate embroidery and subtle dressmaker touches.

Editors got a capsule picture of junior styles for spring in a combined showing of youthful styles by Mr. Mort, Junior Sophisticates and Reich-Goldfarb, all of which follow the main lines of the adult mode in slim lines for daytime, frou-frou for evening and distinction in beauty and variety of fabrics.

CROSS TIMBERS — Mrs. Alie Bennett who has been seriously ill, is improved and is up and around. Mr. and Mrs. Ted McPherson, Kansas City, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Burnfin and Joyce Marie visited Mr. and Mrs. Iva O'Bryan and Bertha, east of Jordan, Saturday night.

Precocious Mechanic

ORANGE, Va. (AP) — Harrison Simms' interest in mechanics started early. He removed the screws from his high chair and crashed to the floor in a splattering of baby food.

Simms' interest hasn't faded. At 13 he is considered a science prodigy. He is in demand to get tractors started. He fixes electrical equipment for neighbors. He electrocutes rats in the barn. Everything on the Simms farm runs at a well-oiled peak of efficiency. On a recent visit to the Mariners Museum at Newport News his parents missed him — then found him examining an electronic door to find out how it worked. He is building the Simmsyclemobile, — two bicycles powered by a motor mounted between them.

His ambition is the Air Force, where he can learn about radar, and then a career in electronics.

Optimist Club Hears Tax Man Tuesday

Lacy Belt, from the local Internal Revenue office, was the speaker Tuesday noon at the Optimist Club meeting held at Bothwell Hotel, taking for his subject, "Income Taxes."

The Sedalia office, he told the group, is a branch of the district office in Kansas City and is now open only on Mondays. It will, also, be open on Jan. 31 and Feb. 15.

Belt explained that this year there is a new system which is designed for people to help themselves in making out their income taxes. The three men in the local office will help out with specific problems but no longer will make out the returns as they have formerly.

The biggest problem, the speaker said, has always been finding out the facts, they seemed to have a difficult time getting the answers to the questions they asked. It is necessary in making out an income tax to have all the facts and figures. It was during World War II that many people started first filing an income tax and since that time, Belt said, the general run of filing has improved tremendously. At first many people filed tax returns full of errors but in the last few years there has been a great improvement.

A portion of Belt's talk was devoted to exemptions explaining who might be classed as a dependent and how taxes in various cases for dependents should be filed. He also told of the filing of estimate earnings for people who do not have regular wages. This must be done quarterly. The simplest way to file estimate tax for the ensuing year is to base it on the prior year's income tax. This may be done on April 15, the first quarter, and June 15, the second quarter, then if the income is not as great as the preceding year the adjustment may be made on the third quarter.

This year, the speaker said, is the first year that the farmers come under self-employment. This covers anyone who operates a farm, that is, if they live on the farm and operate it themselves or if they live in town and operate the farm even if they do not do any work. This does not include anyone who rents a farm.

Belt was introduced by Frank

Election Day Is Set For Greek Parliament Despite Opposition

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—King Paul has set Feb. 19 as election day for a new Greek Parliament despite threats of opposition parties to boycott the results.

The opposition leaders said they would not consider the results of the vote genuine because the King refused their demand that he dismiss Premier Constantine Karamanlis' Cabinet.

Instead the monarch replaced only five ministers—including those for interior, national defense and justice—with men from outside Parliament. Despite the boycott threat, he signed the decree dissolving the legislature and ordering the new vote.

Stolen Gun Stops Bank Robbery Plans

ARKANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—When they arrested Lawrence H. Schulte, 30, for parole violation yesterday, sheriff's deputies said they found a note in his pocket which read:

"Hand over all the money you have. Don't look around, just hand it over. I have a gun."

Sheriff James Dill said Schulte orally admitted he had planned to use the note in a bank robbery. But he didn't. Dill quoted Schulte, because someone had stolen the gun from his car.

Utah Officials Renew Fight

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—State child welfare officials are returning to the courts in efforts to make a Short Creek, Utah, couple either give up their children or sign affidavits saying they won't teach them to practice polygamy.

A party of welfare workers, led by Lamar Andrus, went into the isolated Utah-Arizona border town yesterday to take custody of the eight children of Leonard and Vera Black. They gave up the attempt when townspeople barred their way.

Last night, Director John Farr Larson of the state's Bureau of Services for Children, said he was instructing Andrus, a child welfare consultant, to:

1. Secure complaints against the people who barred the way, charging them with "interfering with an officer in performance of duty."
2. Ask Cedar City, Utah, juvenile court to start contempt proceedings against the Blacks.

Utah's attempt to take custody of the Black children started after Arizona raided the settlement in July 1953 and jailed several townsmen in efforts to stamp out the practice of plural marriage there. The Blacks live on the Utah side of Short Creek.
